

ABSTRACT

A utensil for feeding infants or invalids, comprised of a contoured handle and a partially enclosed spoon bowl having a large, spatula-shaped opening at the posterior end of the bowl and a smaller opening with an approximately straight edge at the anterior end of the bowl.